

2018 NAMI Michigan Honors

Master of Ceremony: Carol Cain

Carol Cain is the nine-time Emmy Award Winning Senior Producer/ Host of “Michigan Matters” — the weekly show airing 11:30 a.m. Sundays on CBS 62 focusing on politics, business, education and more. She also assists CBS with its Peabody-nominated “Eye on the Future” initiative which was launched to take on important issues that impact the community with an eye towards long-term impact. Carol is also an award-winning columnist at Detroit Free Press and has been a friend to NAMI Michigan for many years.

March 17th, the Marriott Ypsilanti at Eagle Crest host the 2018 NAMI Michigan Honors Black-Tie Gala. Located at 1275 S. Huron St. in Ypsilanti, Eagle Crest is conveniently located just off I-94. Eagle Crest, one of Michigan’s premier luxury hotel conference centers is the ideal place to celebrate our heroes. Not only will you find unmatched facilities and service, but we work with only the best vendors in the area to ensure our event is flawless. The cocktail hour starts at 5:30pm.

Ticket price includes:

- Valet Parking
- Red-Carpet Reception
- Hors D’ Oeuvres
- Champagne (or sparkling cider) Toast
- Coat Check
- Cocktail hour featuring Premium Open Bar
- Fabulous dinner
- Live Entertainment by

The Detroit School of Arts Vocal Jazz Café

Tickets are $150.00 per person; $1,200.00 per table of eight

Silent Auction: Don’t leave the credit cards at home! Our silent auction will be filled with wonderful jewelry, trips, getaways and more.

Relax, enjoy the evening and stay the night! If you live outside Metropolitan Detroit, stay the night. Reserve your room at the special rate of $109.00 (plus tax) by calling (734) 487-2000.