

What are people saying?

"Very powerful message. I am impressed with entire curriculum. A LOT of different tools for recovery were part of the class allowing for CHOICE." – IA

"Peer-to-Peer teaches in nine weeks what it took me 20 years to figure out for myself." – CA

"I feel even more passionate about my advocacy role. And this has reinforced my belief that all consumers can lead a full successful life if they receive the treatment they need." – MO

"...has made me realize that I can trust myself, I am not incompetent. These messages I have had to drown out since the day I was hospitalized 8 years ago. I can be my own best friend." – MD

"I think this is very powerful. In depth with the many tools I'll need..." – AZ

"I loved the class! It is really the first time I admitted to myself that my OCD is a mental illness. It took courage to come to this class, but I came every night. I'm glad I did." – AR

"Fast moving, quite comprehensive, very enlightening, necessary course to pass on." – NV

About NAMI

NAMI is the nation's leading grass-roots advocacy organization solely dedicated to improving the quality of life for individuals with severe mental illnesses and their families. NAMI's efforts focus on support to persons with serious brain disorders and to their families; advocacy for nondiscriminatory and equitable federal, state, and private sector policies; research into the causes, symptoms, and treatments for brain disorders; and education to eliminate the pervasive stigma surrounding mental illness. NAMI has 50 state organizations and more than 1,200 local affiliates in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, American Samoa, and Canada.

among course participants affords for a lively dynamic that moves the Course along.

Who can take it?

The Course is designed to offer an opportunity for growth to any individual who experiences mental illness.

Who are the teachers?

Courses are taught by teams of three trained “mentors”, or peer-teachers, who are themselves experienced at living well with mental illness.
